

Celebrating Youth in Evaluation

Launch of manifesto on meaningful engagement of youth and young evaluators in evaluation

23 May 2022, Monday | 8.00 – 9.15 am ET

Registration | Details

Agenda

5 mts Welcome by moderators (Ana Erika Lareza and Mark Mulobi, young evaluators and youth advocates for evaluation)

Session 1: 10 mts Harnessing the power of Youth in Evaluation

2 mts Opening song by Chloé Sautereau, Brazilian young singer

2 mts Message by #Eval4Action co-leaders and young evaluators

4 mts Opening statement by Martin Karadzhev, Queer human rights activist, Young Leader for the SDGs

Session 2: 35 mts Youth in Evaluation: Be a champion

2 mts Song by Gaurav Vohra, young opera singer from India

5 mts Keynote address by Dr Natalia Kanem, UNFPA Executive Director

2 mts Marco Segone, Director, UNFPA Evaluation Office

2 mts Gabriela Renteria Flores, Chair, EvalYouth Global Network

5-6 mts Audience poll:

1. Why should youth be engaged in evaluation?
2. How can we engage youth in evaluation?

2 mts Statement by Youth Steering Committee member (Sana Ben Salem) on the experience of youth participation in the upcoming evaluation of UNFPA support to adolescents and youth

1 mts each

Statements of support for Youth in Evaluation by institutional heads:

1. Antony Cyriac, Dy Director General, Development Monitoring and Evaluation Office, Government of India
2. Megha Pradhan, Director, CLEAR South Asia
3. Emmanuel Jiminez, Director General, Independent Evaluation, Asian Development Bank
4. Aloyce Ratemo, Director, Directorate of M&E, Kenya
5. Candice Morkel, Director, CLEAR-AA
6. Amos Menard, Deputy Director, CLEAR- FA
7. Girma Kumbi, Chief Evaluation Officer, Independent Development Evaluation, African Development Bank
8. Gabriela Pérez Yarahuán, Director, CLEAR-LAC
9. Michael Quinn Patton, Founder, Blue Marble Evaluation
10. Oscar A Garcia, Director, UNDP Independent Evaluation Office
11. Silvia Salinas Mulder, President, International Organization for Cooperation in Evaluation (IOCE)
12. Regional VOPEs
 - Tashi Dendup, Board Member, APEA
 - Rosetti Nabbumba, President, AfrEA
 - Celeste Ghiano, Coordinator General, ReLAC
 - Taruna Gupta, Board Member, European Evaluation Society
 - Veronica Olazabal, President, AEA

Session 3: 7 mts Youth in Evaluation manifesto adoption

2 mts Performance by Luka Simic, award-winning accordion player from Serbia

5 mts Manifesto adoption by #Eval4Action co-leaders, institutional heads, and regional VOPEs

Session 4: 10 mts Youth in Evaluation: From commitments to action

2 mts Closing statement by 7 Regional EvalYouth leaders

2 mts Closing song by Lloyd Semo from Kenya, Africa